INvariably IN ADVANCE.

MILWAUKEE:

MONDAY MORNING, NOVEMBER 8.

Fair-Weather Friends.

The News, like the Argus at Madison, makes haste to saddle upon one, or two, of the defeated Democratic Candidates the responsibility for the unexpected and mortifying overthrow which the Sham Democracy sustained in this Congressional District. Hear this fair-weather friend:

The News bolted no part of that ticket, but the News could not without self-justification say anything in favor of that portion of the ticket, which was so odious, that a majority of the electorate of Milwaukee County, and the whole State, would have abominated it. We knew that two of the nominees were justly obnoxious to the charge of being reptiles, but we were willing that they should take the verdict of the people upon their conduct. "The world and we have repaid the News for its services to the ticket, which is not worth otherwise. Men must have some merit, either political or personal, to recommend them to the suffrages of the people, before they can make a successful run for the most important offices in this State. Now, how the candidates who were elected on our side did it?"

These are personal antecedents, personal characters and general reputation in this country, should have prevented their nomination by a democratic convention. These things blemished their election, and would do it many times out of a hundred.

This assault upon Messrs. BADE and DOLAN is both ungrateful and untrue. The secret of the News' hostility to these gentlemen, is notorious. They never rallied with "the Forty." Hence it was that, after they had been fully nominated by a Democratic Convention, the News clique went to work to organize a belt, and got up Mr. MARSHALL, as a Democratic candidate for Sheriff, and Mr. BARRY, as an Independent candidate for Treasurer. Mr. MARSHALL, however, declining the "golding" nomination for Sheriff, the contest was left between Mr. LANGWORTHY, the People's candidate, and Mr. BADE, the regular Democratic nominee. Then, it was that the News came to terms with Mr. BADE, agreed to support him, and, for the first time, even at the risk of "self-justification," was loud and apparently sincere in his praise. Undoubtedly the News fully believed that Mr. BADE was sure of election, and having eyes to the patronage of the Sheriff's office, swallowed his objections and went in to his support. But it was then too late to repair the mischief which had been done.

The erratic course of the News had fairly demoralized the party; its "Bolding" example proved contagious, and the hitherto invincible Democracy of Milwaukee County was down before the vigorous and united charge of the People's party. Under these circumstances, for the News to saddle the defeat upon Messrs. BADE and DOLAN, and upon the strength of this imputation, to abuse and traduce others, is the work of policy, the flunkey of others, and the meanness of ingratitude.

The Next Congress.

The next House of Representatives will have 235 members—leaving Kansas and Oregon out of the question. It will require 119 for a majority.

This number the Opposition (Independent of South Americans) have virtually secured, by the elections on Tuesday. Thus far, there have been 122 members chosen, as follows:

STATES. COTTON. ADDITION.

Arkansas, 2 (A. L. Dem.)

Delaware, 1

Florida, 1

Illinoia, 4 5

Indiana, 3 3

Iowa, 2

Michigan, 6 6

Massachusetts, 11 11

Michigan, 3 1

Missouri, 7 7

New Jersey, 6 6

New York, 28 5

Ohio, 15 6

Pennsylvaniia, 22 3

South Carolina, 6 6

Vermont, 3 3

Wisconsin, (probably) 2 1

111 41

There is hardly room to doubt that New Hampshire, Connecticut and Rhode Island, which vote next Spring, will elect unanimous Republican delegations to the next Congress. This will add 9 to the Opposition column.

We hope, too, for a gain of one, at least, in Minnesota. This will add 9 to the Opposition column.

A. E. BRIGHTMAN.—A story was started and gained currency, we understand, among the Democracy previous to election, that our candidate for Registe Mr. SHEAR, had died of pneumonia, and his funeral was appointed for Monday last. Such a story was in actual circulation, and the party leaders of the opponents. That was all the stories they ever told. To-day, the 13th, all the stories are gone, and there are no longer any stories about the ship of state to come. The ship of state is gone, and the winds are steering her. God grant me a safe passage and complete the deliverance I have begun.

The burst steamer's name is the America, Captain B. D. B. and she belonged to the Hudson and American Packet Company. She had on board 630 persons, including her crew and passengers, and surpassing the Norwegian vessel to have saved none, will remain 480 individuals as victims of this catastrophe.

For Congress—Charles Billingshurst 78; Glas.

H. Larabee 43; majority 547.

Senator—Luther Hancher 117; — Ferrell 163; majority 1023.

Member of Assembly—Chas. White 816; Geo. Hawley 543; majority 29; R. Clark 1499; no opposition.

Clark of Court—G. H. Giles 1409; no opposition.

Clerk of Board—A. T. Doyer 1409; no opposition.

State-Sen.—W. Beach 820; Edward Saxe 684; majority 255.

Dist. Atty.—Levi L. Soule 840; J. S. Ewing 482; majority 863.

Treasurer—J. A. Williams 710; T. J. Cross 634; majority 72; probably contested.

Auditor—F. M. Green 1224; Henry Flory 1423; majority 1089.

Compt.—David H. Fultizer 592; W. J. Thom 446; majority 445.

The above list is an accurate as it will be possible to get one before the County Board meets and canvasses the votes. Owing to the rain and the almost impossible conditions of the roads, a very light vote was polled in this county which may account for the small majority given for Billingshurst.

D. H. Fultizer.
